

THE 2012 HOBART SYMPOSIUM
Update on the Origins and Management of Disease

6th October, 2012

To be held in the Keith Millingen Lecture Theatre,
Clinical School, University of Tasmania,
Collins Street, Hobart.

Registration 08:30 – 09:00

	SPEAKER	TITLE
8:55	Opening Address : Udayan Ray
9.05	Peter Rathjen : Vice Chancellor, UTas.	Stem cells and regenerative therapies
9.30	John Burgess : Royal Hobart Hospital	Iodine Nutrition – The Salient Facts of Health and Disease
10:00	Rafat Siddiqui : Plenary Speaker : Indiana University School of Medicine	Synergistic Effects of Docosahexaenoic Acid and Curcumin in Breast Cancer
10.40	COFFEE (20 mins)
11:00	Tony van Galen : Pathology Services, RHH	Current Laboratory Practices for the Diagnosis of Prostate Cancer
11.30	Robin Harle : Royal Hobart Hospital	Medical Imaging in the Diagnosis and Management of Diseases
12:00	Pratibha V Nerurkar : Plenary Speaker : University of Hawaii	Alternate Approach to the Management of Diabetes
12.40	LUNCH (60 mins)
13.40	Raj Eri : Mucosal Biology Lab, UTas	Gutsy Stores: Latest Research Advances in Inflammatory Bowel Disease
14.10	Michelle Keske : Menzies Institute	Role of Microvascular Perfusion in Insulin Sensitivity
14.40	Dino Premilovac : Menzies Institute	Causes of Muscle Insulin Resistance: 'Would you like some salt with that?'
15.10	COFFEE (20 mins)
15.30	Dimitri Sviridov : Plenary Speaker : Baker IDI Heart and Diabetes Institute	HDL : A Hero, a Witness or a Mirage ?
16.10	James Vickers : School of Medicine, UTas	Pathology and Brain Plasticity in Alzheimer's Disease
16.40	Milford McArthur : Royal Hobart Hospital	Can we predict suicide ?
17:05	Michael Thompson : School of Medicine, UTAS	Research as a medical student
17.15	Closing Address : Tom Hartley

SPONSORS

